DR. CREEL IS SOUGHT

NINE ORDAINED PRIESTS IN BROOKLAND CHAPEL

Eleven Students Become Deacons at Mayor Curry Here to Urge Assignthe Immaculate Conception College Ceremonies.

Troubled by the possibility that Dr. young students were ordained to the priesthood in the Richard E. Creel of the public health chapel of the Immaculate Conception service may not take charge of the ollege at Brookland. Following their Boston health office-part of the agreeeception to the priesthood, Most Rev. ment between the city of Boston and ohn Bonzano, apostolic delegate to the government by which the governthis country, celebrated mass at the ment took over the quarantine station formerly operated by the city; perhaps main altar of the chapel.

Those who entered the priesthood the essential requirement of the city to were Revs. Albert O'Brien, Francis induce it to surrender control-mayor Beckley, Lawrence Martin, Michael James Curry has been in Washington Galliher, Gabriel Moore and Irvin Culi to discuss this prospect with Assistant of the Dominican order, and Fathers Secretary Byron R. Carrick, Merkie and Byrne, who are to serve in the secular priesthood.

In addition to those ordained as priests, the following were made dearcons: Francis Coughlin, August Sullivan, Hugh Welsh, Aloysius Hughes, Reginald Caien, Antonius Fox, Jerome Treacy, Antony Marchant, Ambrose Howley, Joseph O'Toole and Daniel Newman.

Assisting at the ceremonies were Father Miliholland, S. S., of St. Mary's Seminary, Baitmore; Father Burns, C. S. C., of Holy Cross College, Brookland; Father Swift of St. Charles' College, Ellicott City, Md.; Father Godfrey, O. F. M., commissariat of Mount St. Sepulcher, Brookland; Father Joson, S. S., president of Divinity Hall, Catholic University, Brookland; Father Martin S. Welsh, O. P., of Aquinas College, Columbus, Ohio, and Father Valentine, provincial of the Passionist Order.

Rev. Quitman Frances Beckley, O. P., one of the newly ordained priests, is a Washington citizen. He will celebrate his first solemn high mass in St. Patrick's Church Sunday at 11 o'clock. He is twenty-four years of age, and was a pupil of St. Patrick's Academy from its opening until June, 1967.

Treasury Department, in charge of the public health service. Dr. Creel is now in New Orleans. He is held there by litigation growing out of the measures for rat proofing the city, in the recent anti-plague cru-sade, which resulted in alleged damages to property of citizens. Not only may this matter keep Dr. Creel in New Orleans for some time, but he is also compilating of indisposition, and may this matter keep Dr. Creel in New Orleans for some time, but he is also compilating of indisposition, and may apply for sick leave after this work is done.

It is this situation that troubles the Boston authorities. They want Dr. Creel, and want him quick. So mayor Curry brought up the subject with Assistant Secretary Newton.

Dr. Creel was slated to take charge of the United States public health service—probably on indefinite leave from the United States public health service in the curry of the central public health service in ey discussed with interest today an announcement by Dr. W. Homer Axford that a new treatment for cancer has been tested, apparently with suc cess, in the Polyclinic Hospital in New York with which he is connected. The treatment was discovered two years ago by Dr. Alexander Horovitz of Cornell University. Dr. Axford asserted in an address yesterday that the experiments indicated that a curative agent had been found for cancerous growths and all abnormal cell developments.

One Death in 200 Cases.

The physician said the treatment had een applied in the Polyclinic Hospital only in so-called incurable cases and that of 200 patients treated only one died. Experiments were first made in cases of chest cancer, but abdominal cancer cases have shown improvement. The treatment was described as the The treatment was described as the injection of an extract of vegetable origin. Dr. Axford said many months would be required to complete the investigation of the new treatment.

QUESTIONS TITLE TO SEATS

Sir George McGill Proceeds Against Privy Councilors Speyer and Cassel. LONDON, June 24.-Baron Reading, the lord chief justice, yesterday granted an order in the court of the king's bench directing Sir Edgar Speyer and Sir Ernest Cassel to show by what authority they claim to be members of the privy ouncil in Great Britain. Application for the order was made at the instance of Sir George McGill, on the ground that neither Sir Edgar Speyer nor Sir Edward Cassel is a British subject, born and bred, and therefore is not lawfilly a member of the privy council.

The court granted the application without expressing any opinion.
